

Ladies' Fancy Hosiery.

First Floor.

35 cents per pair.

LISLE THREAD,

Plaids, Roman Stripes, lace open-work boot patterns, silk embroideries,—a variety of colors,—plain or Riche-lieu ribbed.

Plain black or tan,—Riche-lieu or Rembrandt rib,
35 cents per pair.

James McCreery & Co.,
Twenty-third Street.

WESTCHESTER COUNTY.

YONKERS.

This being Holy Week, there will be special services in the Protestant Episcopal and Catholic churches. In St. John's Episcopal Church on Good Friday there will be services at 11 o'clock in the forenoon and at 8 o'clock in the evening; in St. Paul's, evening at 8 o'clock and sermon at 3 o'clock; in Christ Church, even-song at 8 o'clock; at St. Andrew's Memorial Church, sermon at 11 o'clock in the forenoon. At the church of the Immaculate Conception there will be a solemn high mass and procession at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of Holy Thursday; on Good Friday, at 8 o'clock in the evening, there will be a sermon by the Rev. John J. Mallon.

This evening at the alleys of the Palisade Rent Club, in Glenwood, the tie between the Germania team, of Mount Vernon, and the Palisade No. 1 team will be rolled. This game will decide the winner of the invitation tournament of that club, which closed recently with the Palisade No. 1. After the game the prizes will be distributed and there will be a concert by Murray's Band. The members of the eleven teams taking part in the tournament have agreed to contribute $100 each for the highest average score to J. Q. A. Johnson, of Palisade No. 1, the model for the greatest number of spares to John Brophy, of the Hollywood Inn team, he having sixty-four to his credit.

The annual meeting of the Kingsley School for the support of a child bed in St. John's Hospital was successful. It was announced yesterday that $15 were secured.

The amount received yesterday for taxes at the office of the Receiver of Taxes amounted to nearly $2,000.

MOUNT VERNON.

The election for city officers will be held on Tuesday, May 17. The offices to be filled are those of Mayor, Receiver of Taxes, City Treasurer, Assessor, Justice of the Peace, City Alderman and a Supervisor in each ward except the Fourth where Albert S. Jenks continues to serve. There will be only one day of registration, Saturday, May 7. Both parties are actively engaged in selecting their candidates.

The annual meeting of the Opera House Company will be held in the Opera House on April 13 and the Republican convention will be held in Lincoln Hall on April 22.

The ceremony of blessing the new bell in the Church of Our Lady of Victory took place on Sunday afternoon. The Rev. A. Lings, of Yonkers, was celebrant; Father Oldermarsh, deacon; the Rev. M. J. Reinhart, sub-deacon, and the Rev. J. N. Hollenbeck, assistant. The bell, which had been placed just outside the altar rail, and at the close of the service the audience fled by it while a choir, under the direction of Professor Davis, sang anthems.

H. G. Goodwin, a New-York city bank employee whose home is in Columbus-ave., this city, heard a noise in his house early on Sunday morning and on going down stairs found a man who had broken in through the window. Mr. Goodwin grappled with the intruder, who broke from his grasp and rushed out of the house. He was closely pursued by Mr. Goodwin and his brother-in-law, Lester Morris. They gave two shots at the burglar, which he returned as he ran.

WHITE PLAINS.

The Board of Supervisors, in accordance with a custom established several years ago, last night enjoyed a dinner given by Chairman Chauncey T. Seever, of虞山, in Manhattan. One of the features of the occasion was the presentation to the chairman of a handsome loving-cup, appropriately inscribed. The cup was given by members of last year's Board.

In the Surrogate's Court yesterday letters of administration were granted to William N. Garhart, administrator of the estate of Anna C. Miller, of Peekskill; William Lorenz, as administrator of the estate of Laura Lorenz, of Yonkers, and to Carrie Burdall, as administrator of the estate of Theodore Burdall, of Newburgh. The will of Charles E. Kewell, of Yonkers, was admitted to probate. Margaret W. Lockwood, executrix.

François M. Carpenter, County Treasurer, is meeting with some difficulty in negotiating the $600,000 bond authorized by the Board of Supervisors to pay for the remodeling of the county jail. At Westchester County has $300,000 of assessed valuation and over less than $200,000, there was no trouble in getting from the farm bureau a resolution on and a simple resolution authorizing the County Treasurer to borrow money by the issuing of bonds. It is probable that a special meeting of the Board of Supervisors will be called to straighten the matter out.

SING SONG.

Robert G. Mead died at Coronado Beach, Cal., last Saturday. He was seventy-eight years old and lived in this town, his property in the Pleasantville Road, east of this village, one of the finest farms in Ossining. He was a lifelong Republican and had frequently been asked to accept nominations for office, but, beyond accepting that of Road Commissioner, to which he was several times elected, always refused.

Last fall, he went to Ossining for the benefit of his health. He was accompanied by Mrs. Mead, a widow, he leaves a family of grown-up sons and daughters.

The members of the Ossining Yacht Club gave a "smoker" at the clubhouse last night.

As a result of his first day's sitting for the collection of town taxes, Collector J. W. Myers yesterday said:

"The annual election of the Fire Department will be held at the steamer company's rooms in Mahan- st., this evening. The firemen will probably have been here all day. Capt. Edward J. John, Captain of Cataract Hose No. 1, and Glendon H. Baker, of Senate Hose and Ladder Company No. 1, for first assistant; Norman Minster, of Washington Hose and Ladder Company No. 2, and John F. Ossining, of Ossining Hose Company No. 1, for second assistant; James T. Crane, of Monitor Hose Company No. 4, and Ralph Hiller, of Protection Hose Company No. 2."

NEW-ROCHELLE.

The Democrats announce the following ticket for the village election to be held on Tuesday, April 19: Treasurer, J. Arthur Huntington, trustee-at-large, H. A. Quackenbush; trustees (First Ward), John W. Rough (Second Ward); Thomas J. Burke, Third Ward; George H. Cranford, and Edward W. John, Fourth Ward. It is understood that the party charter is signed by the Governor these nominations will become void or be merged into a city ticket.

The Rev. Henry T. Newey, of St. Patrick's Cathedral, will preach after the devotion of the stations of the Cross in St. Gabriel's Roman Catholic Church on Friday night.

A number of the men of local organizations are in Albany to-day to attend a hearing on the city charter. The other parts of Westchester County, it is said, are opposing the measure, because it will give the city a larger representation in proportion to its population than either Yonkers or Mount Vernon, the other cities of the county.

The Woman's Aid of John's Episcopal Church paid $3,000 in interest on its loan last year. The officers are Mrs. Mary M. Bergholz, president; Mrs. Ella M. Ware, vice-president; Mrs. Margaret Farmer, secretary, and Mrs. Hattie Morgan, treasurer.

PEEKSKILL.

Bishop Potter confirmed a large class in St. Peter's Protestant Episcopal Church last evening.

The ninth annual meeting of the Helping Hand Association will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Sanford R. Knapp. Three trustees are to be elected.

The visiting physician at the hospital for April 6, Dr. Charles E. Knight. The visiting physician is the Rev. Henry De Vries.

The Entre Nous Club has elected these officers: President, Victor M. Groll; secretary, J. Russell Foskay; treasurer, Clifford Cook.

NORTH TARRYTOWN.

George Sennett, of this village, who is collector of taxes for Mount Pleasant Township, received the tax books yesterday, with the necessary warrants attached, from Charles M. Lane, the town supervisor. The tax collections in Mount Pleasant this year are later than former years owing to the delay in the arrival of the tax lists, and the error, which made necessary its being passed on by the Board of Supervisors a second time. It is said that some of the taxpayers have as much to do with it as the trustees.

The trustees of School District No. 3, town of Mount Pleasant, have set April 18 as the date for the audit of the school accounts.

RICHMOND BOROUGH HAPPENINGS.

John Miller, a supply clerk in the New-York Trade School, at Fifty-second and First-ave., Manhattan, was brought yesterday, charged with assaulting Edward Bryan, sixteen years old, who lives with his father, John Engen, in Tompkinsville, Richmond. The boy was under the care of Dr. Jefferson Scales, suffering from internal hemorrhage. On Saturday, it is asserted, the boy was found by Miller in the stomach with a broomstick. In the night, the boy was taken ill, and it was found that he had an internal hemorrhage and was in a serious condition.

The other members of the Cabinet, though as their offices relate to the internal affairs of Venezuela, have been chosen with great disaffection by General Andrade, the best evidence of which is to be found in the general dissatisfaction wherewith their taxes of Mount Pleasant Township, received the tax books yesterday, with the necessary warrants attached, from Charles M. Lane, the town supervisor. The tax collections in Mount Pleasant this year are later than former years owing to the delay in the arrival of the tax lists, and the error, which made necessary its being passed on by the Board of Supervisors a second time. It is said that some of the taxpayers have as much to do with it as the trustees.

The trustees of School District No. 3, town of Mount Pleasant, have set April 18 as the date for the audit of the school accounts.

George Sennett, of this village, who is collector of taxes for Mount Pleasant Township, received the tax books yesterday, with the necessary warrants attached, from Charles M. Lane, the town supervisor. The tax collections in Mount Pleasant this year are later than former years owing to the delay in the arrival of the tax lists, and the error, which made necessary its being passed on by the Board of Supervisors a second time. It is said that some of the taxpayers have as much to do with it as the trustees.

The trustees of School District No. 3, town of Mount Pleasant, have set April 18 as the date for the audit of the school accounts.

George Sennett, of this village, who is collector of taxes for Mount Pleasant Township, received the tax books yesterday, with the necessary warrants attached, from Charles M. Lane, the town supervisor. The tax collections in Mount Pleasant this year are later than former years owing to the delay in the arrival of the tax lists, and the error, which made necessary its being passed on by the Board of Supervisors a second time. It is said that some of the taxpayers have as much to do with it as the trustees.

The trustees of School District No. 3, town of Mount Pleasant, have set April 18 as the date for the audit of the school accounts.

George Sennett, of this village, who is collector of taxes for Mount Pleasant Township, received the tax books yesterday, with the necessary warrants attached, from Charles M. Lane, the town supervisor. The tax collections in Mount Pleasant this year are later than former years owing to the delay in the arrival of the tax lists, and the error, which made necessary its being passed on by the Board of Supervisors a second time. It is said that some of the taxpayers have as much to do with it as the trustees.

The trustees of School District No. 3, town of Mount Pleasant, have set April 18 as the date for the audit of the school accounts.

George Sennett, of this village, who is collector of taxes for Mount Pleasant Township, received the tax books yesterday, with the necessary warrants attached, from Charles M. Lane, the town supervisor. The tax collections in Mount Pleasant this year are later than former years owing to the delay in the arrival of the tax lists, and the error, which made necessary its being passed on by the Board of Supervisors a second time. It is said that some of the taxpayers have as much to do with it as the trustees.

The trustees of School District No. 3, town of Mount Pleasant, have set April 18 as the date for the audit of the school accounts.

George Sennett, of this village, who is collector of taxes for Mount Pleasant Township, received the tax books yesterday, with the necessary warrants attached, from Charles M. Lane, the town supervisor. The tax collections in Mount Pleasant this year are later than former years owing to the delay in the arrival of the tax lists, and the error, which made necessary its being passed on by the Board of Supervisors a second time. It is said that some of the taxpayers have as much to do with it as the trustees.

The trustees of School District No. 3, town of Mount Pleasant, have set April 18 as the date for the audit of the school accounts.

George Sennett, of this village, who is collector of taxes for Mount Pleasant Township, received the tax books yesterday, with the necessary warrants attached, from Charles M. Lane, the town supervisor. The tax collections in Mount Pleasant this year are later than former years owing to the delay in the arrival of the tax lists, and the error, which made necessary its being passed on by the Board of Supervisors a second time. It is said that some of the taxpayers have as much to do with it as the trustees.

The trustees of School District No. 3, town of Mount Pleasant, have set April 18 as the date for the audit of the school accounts.

George Sennett, of this village, who is collector of taxes for Mount Pleasant Township, received the tax books yesterday, with the necessary warrants attached, from Charles M. Lane, the town supervisor. The tax collections in Mount Pleasant this year are later than former years owing to the delay in the arrival of the tax lists, and the error, which made necessary its being passed on by the Board of Supervisors a second time. It is said that some of the taxpayers have as much to do with it as the trustees.

The trustees of School District No. 3, town of Mount Pleasant, have set April 18 as the date for the audit of the school accounts.

George Sennett, of this village, who is collector of taxes for Mount Pleasant Township, received the tax books yesterday, with the necessary warrants attached, from Charles M. Lane, the town supervisor. The tax collections in Mount Pleasant this year are later than former years owing to the delay in the arrival of the tax lists, and the error, which made necessary its being passed on by the Board of Supervisors a second time. It is said that some of the taxpayers have as much to do with it as the trustees.

The trustees of School District No. 3, town of Mount Pleasant, have set April 18 as the date for the audit of the school accounts.

George Sennett, of this village, who is collector of taxes for Mount Pleasant Township, received the tax books yesterday, with the necessary warrants attached, from Charles M. Lane, the town supervisor. The tax collections in Mount Pleasant this year are later than former years owing to the delay in the arrival of the tax lists, and the error, which made necessary its being passed on by the Board of Supervisors a second time. It is said that some of the taxpayers have as much to do with it as the trustees.

The trustees of School District No. 3, town of Mount Pleasant, have set April 18 as the date for the audit of the school accounts.

George Sennett, of this village, who is collector of taxes for Mount Pleasant Township, received the tax books yesterday, with the necessary warrants attached, from Charles M. Lane, the town supervisor. The tax collections in Mount Pleasant this year are later than former years owing to the delay in the arrival of the tax lists, and the error, which made necessary its being passed on by the Board of Supervisors a second time. It is said that some of the taxpayers have as much to do with it as the trustees.

The trustees of School District No. 3, town of Mount Pleasant, have set April 18 as the date for the audit of the school accounts.

George Sennett, of this village, who is collector of taxes for Mount Pleasant Township, received the tax books yesterday, with the necessary warrants attached, from Charles M. Lane, the town supervisor. The tax collections in Mount Pleasant this year are later than former years owing to the delay in the arrival of the tax lists, and the error, which made necessary its being passed on by the Board of Supervisors a second time. It is said that some of the taxpayers have as much to do with it as the trustees.

The trustees of School District No. 3, town of Mount Pleasant, have set April 18 as the date for the audit of the school accounts.

George Sennett, of this village, who is collector of taxes for Mount Pleasant Township, received the tax books yesterday, with the necessary warrants attached, from Charles M. Lane, the town supervisor. The tax collections in Mount Pleasant this year are later than former years owing to the delay in the arrival of the tax lists, and the error, which made necessary its being passed on by the Board of Supervisors a second time. It is said that some of the taxpayers have as much to do with it as the trustees.

The trustees of School District No. 3, town of Mount Pleasant, have set April 18 as the date for the audit of the school accounts.

George Sennett, of this village, who is collector of taxes for Mount Pleasant Township, received the tax books yesterday, with the necessary warrants attached, from Charles M. Lane, the town supervisor. The tax collections in Mount Pleasant this year are later than former years owing to the delay in the arrival of the tax lists, and the error, which made necessary its being passed on by the Board of Supervisors a second time. It is said that some of the taxpayers have as much to do with it as the trustees.

The trustees of School District No. 3, town of Mount Pleasant, have set April 18 as the date for the audit of the school accounts.

George Sennett, of this village, who is collector of taxes for Mount Pleasant Township, received the tax books yesterday, with the necessary warrants attached, from Charles M. Lane, the town supervisor. The tax collections in Mount Pleasant this year are later than former years owing to the delay in the arrival of the tax lists, and the error, which made necessary its being passed on by the Board of Supervisors a second time. It is said that some of the taxpayers have as much to do with it as the trustees.

The trustees of School District No. 3, town of Mount Pleasant, have set April 18 as the date for the audit of the school accounts.

George Sennett, of this village, who is collector of taxes for Mount Pleasant Township, received the tax books yesterday, with the necessary warrants attached, from Charles M. Lane, the town supervisor. The tax collections in Mount Pleasant this year are later than former years owing to the delay in the arrival of the tax lists, and the error, which made necessary its being passed on by the Board of Supervisors a second time. It is said that some of the taxpayers have as much to do with it as the trustees.

The trustees of School District No. 3, town of Mount Pleasant, have set April 18 as the date for the audit of the school accounts.

George Sennett, of this village, who is collector of taxes for Mount Pleasant Township, received the tax books yesterday, with the necessary warrants attached, from Charles M. Lane, the town supervisor. The tax collections in Mount Pleasant this year are later than former years owing to the delay in the arrival of the tax lists, and the error, which made necessary its being passed on by the Board of Supervisors a second time. It is said that some of the taxpayers have as much to do with it as the trustees.

The trustees of School District No. 3, town of Mount Pleasant, have set April 18 as the date for the audit of the school accounts.

George Sennett, of this village, who is